Gilbert Tuners

John Gilbert has an extensive tool-engineering background and is renowned for the quality and consistency of his classical guitars. John developed these tuners to complement his instruments. The roller gear and shaft are machined as one piece from phosphor-bronze to ensure concentricity. The wormgear is machined from stainless steel to eliminate corrosion and wear. Our patented worm-slide design has completely eliminated any endplay and backlash you may find in other tuners. Each tuner is hand-built to order, 24k gold plate or black zinc. Your choice of knobs and gear inlay.

Jellifish Plectrum Effect

It's not rocket science—or maybe it is! Either way, you just need your ears—not a PhD—to hear that the Jellifish reinvents your six-string, banjo, or mandolin. Pretty cool, huh? But what's cooler still is that when you hear these fresh, new sounds coming from your trusted workhorse, the Jellifish will cause you to think outside the box. That means you'll be inspired to write something uniquely your own or put an original twist on a time-honored tune. Do the math for yourself by checking out the "Chorus!," "Pluck!," and "Bow!" videos on our website at www.jellifish.com.

Takamine GS330S

Takamine

Takamine's G Series offers impressive performance at an affordable price. Featuring solid-spruce-top dreadnoughts, cutaway and non-cutaway models, 12-strings, straight acoustics, and acoustic-electrics, plus a wide choice of colors. Select models showcase our smaller NEX and FXC body styles—ideal instruments for vocal accompaniment. The G Series also includes several classic guitars.
